Rugby Table Tennis Centre,

Lawrence Sheriff School, Clifton Road, Rugby CV21 3AG

From A45 (Leamington)

Come off A45 head north on A4071 (Bilton Road) into Rugby.

Up hill into town then bear right at gyratory system/roundabout for the A428 (Hillmorton Road) for about half a mile when you come to the big roundabout on Hillmorton Road (you can see the school playing field on the left).

Turn left at this roundabout, left at the next roundabout and then almost immediate left into front of school.

Park! The new building in front of you is the Table Tennis Centre. If there is nowhere here to park then there are other car parks at the school.

From the North

Come off M1 at junction 20 take third exit to Rugby.

Follow the dual carriageway for about 1.5 miles; keep in the left hand lane! Go straight over the first roundabout.

You begin to go downhill, go straight over another roundabout.

At the next roundabout (it has Kipling written in the bricks around the edge!) turn left (signposted "Picnic Area"!!)

After you turn left you'll see the canal and picnic area on the right.

Keep straight on; over a mini-roundabout.

Go over the canal as the 30mph sign comes up.

Past a few shops which are on the left. Old garage on right.

Turn right at lights (Mill Road). You'll come to a tunnel (under the railway station) - go through the tunnel and straight up the hill - this is called Murray Road.

At the top of Murray Road is a roundabout, you can see the school, to the right, on the other side of the roundabout.

Take the fourth exit (e.g. right) and then indicate left to turn almost immediately into the front of the school.

From the South

Come off M1 at junction 18. Take the A428 (West) Signposted to Rugby.

4.5 miles from the motorway you come to a roundabout turn right (Whitehall Park & the town Sports Centre are on the left.)
